

REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE OF WASHINGTON

BYLAWS

Adopted January 31, 2025

Updated May 17, 2025, September 6, 2025, January 31, 2026, and April 11, 2026

ARTICLE 1 – NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Republican State Committee of Washington (hereinafter referred to as the State Committee). The trade name of the organization shall be the Washington State Republican Party (WSRP) (hereinafter referred to as the State Party). The name WAGOP will be used for public-facing purposes.

ARTICLE 2 – PURPOSE

The purpose of the State Committee shall be:

- 2.1 To elect Republicans to public office;
- 2.2 To attract voters and volunteers to the Republican Party by promoting Republican principles;
- 2.3 To lead, contribute, and participate in the establishment of a Republican Party organization that is an effective vehicle for setting public policy;
- 2.4 To fulfill those functions conferred on it by state law; and
- 2.5 To plan, organize, administer, and finance the State Committee's operations to accomplish the other stated purposes.

The principles of the Republican Party are found in:

- The US Declaration of Independence,
- The US Constitution as amended, and
- The Washington State Republican Party Platform.

ARTICLE 3 – STATE COMMITTEE

3.1 – Membership: The state committeeman, state committeewoman, and the county chairman elected by each Republican County Central Committee shall constitute the membership of the State Committee.

The State Chairman, State Vice Chairman, National Committeeman, National Committeewoman, and Executive Board Members not otherwise members of the State Committee shall be non-voting members of the State Committee, except that the acting chairman shall have the power to vote to break any tie vote.

The State Party has the ultimate right to enforce its own rules, and to require that its members refrain from conduct injurious to the organization or its purposes. Any State Committee Member, as defined in these bylaws, who publicly supports a candidate for any partisan public office in a general or special election who is opposed by a Republican candidate officially nominated pursuant to the State Party Nomination Rules, shall be removed from membership on the State Committee by two-thirds vote of members present of the Executive Board and State Committee. Any Executive Board actions to remove a member for such cause shall be temporary until ratified by the State Committee as required item of business at the next State Committee Meeting. Removal of membership will result in the removal of that individual from all rights and privileges granted in these bylaws to State Committee Members. The State Committee Member will further be banned from participating in any State Committee activities for a period of not less than two years from the date of removal.

A vote to remove a State Committee Member may be called for during any Executive Board or State Committee Meeting, provided that:

1. The reason for the removal vote is submitted in writing to the State Chairman;
2. The reason for the removal vote does not include publicly supporting a candidate endorsed by the State Committee Member's county Republican Party;
3. The removal vote request is signed by 20% of the State Committee;
4. Notice is given to the Executive Board and State Committee of the removal vote with the reason for the vote no less than 14 days before the meeting where the removal vote will take place; and
5. The call for the vote is not made until the State Committee Member (if present) is allowed to speak to the motion.

3.2 – Duties

The State Committee shall:

- 3.2.1 Elect and fill vacancies for the State Chairman, State Vice Chairman, National Committeeman, and National Committeewoman (Articles 6.1, 6.3, and 7.1);
- 3.2.2 Remove the State Chairman, State Vice Chairman, National Committeeman, or National Committeewoman for cause (Article 6.3);
- 3.2.3 Elect and fill vacancies of Regional Executive Board Members (by region) and ratify the election of Regional Executive Board Members to the Executive Board (as a whole) (Articles 6.4, 6.3, and 7.1);
- 3.2.4 Remove Regional Executive Board Members for cause (by region) (Article 6.3);
- 3.2.5 Remove Executive Board and State Committee Members for cause (Article 3.1);

- 3.2.6 Approve the State Chairman’s written plans outlining the political and fundraising programs and budget (Articles 5.1 and 9.2);
- 3.2.7 Supervise the timely accomplishment of the political and fundraising programs and budget plans;
- 3.2.8 Authorize the payment of such reasonable salaries to its officers, committee chairmen, and committee members as it may deem to be necessary and proper (Article 6.5);
- 3.2.9 Issue the call to the State Convention (Article 7.4);
- 3.2.10 Fill multi-county legislative vacancies and vacancies on the ticket as the RCW directs (Article 11);
- 3.2.11 Consider properly presented motions;
- 3.2.12 Adopt resolutions;
- 3.2.13 Adopt and amend these bylaws (Articles 13 and 12);
- 3.2.14 Take such other actions as are provided for in these bylaws or in state law; and
- 3.2.15 Have sole authority, within the budget, to approve the purchase or disposal of real property.

3.3 – Standing Committees

The State Chairman shall appoint all committee chairs and committee members based on experience and preferences, except for the Audit Committee which is elected by the Executive Board.

- 3.3.1 Audit Committee: The Audit Committee shall be comprised of three members of the State Committee elected by the Executive Board. The State Treasurer shall serve as non-voting member of the committee. The Audit Committee shall review and report on the books and records of the State Committee by June 15 of each year. The Audit Committee shall recommend to the Executive Board the name of an independent audit firm (see Article 5.7). The Audit Committee reports to the State Committee and Executive Board, makes recommendations on matters relating to financial controls, and performs such other tasks as may be assigned by the State Committee. Voting members of the Audit Committee may be removed by a majority vote of the State Committee.
- 3.3.2 Budget Committee: The Budget Committee shall prepare the budget (see Article 9.2); recommend any necessary modification thereof to the Executive Board; monitor compliance with the budget assuring that actual or anticipated expenditures do not exceed actual or anticipated revenues; monitor compliance with campaign and financial report laws; and report to the Executive Board any departures from approved budgets and established financial procedures.

- 3.3.3 Bylaws Committee: The Bylaws Committee shall consider amendments to these bylaws as provided for in Article 12.
- 3.3.4 Meeting Planning Committee: The Meeting Planning Committee shall include one State Committee Member from each Region (see Section 6.4) elected by the members of their Region. The committee shall be responsible for working with State Party staff to calendar and secure locations for State Committee Meetings. To the best of their ability, locations will be rotated between Western, Central, and Eastern Washington.
- 3.3.5 Other Standing Committees: The State Chairman may appoint other standing committee the State Chairman deems necessary for the successful execution of his/her assigned responsibilities. Such committees may include, but are not limited to, the following: Candidate, Caucus and Convention, Election Integrity, Faith Engagement, Finance, Grassroots, Messaging, Resolutions, and Young Republicans. Upon the establishment of any such committee the State Chairman shall provide a written description of its purpose and duties.

ARTICLE 4 - EXECUTIVE BOARD

4.1 – Membership: Voting Executive Board Members shall be the Regional Executive Board Members elected by the State Committee at its organization meeting (as provided in Article 7.1), the State Chairman, State Vice Chairman, National Committeeman, and National Committeewoman. The Washington State House & Senate Republican Leaders (or a designated representative—who shall be members of the House & Senate—elected by their caucuses to serve in lieu of the House & Senate Republican leaders) shall be non-voting Executive Board Members. The State Chairman may vote only to break a tie of the Executive Board.

The officers of the State Committee shall be the Executive Board's officers. The Executive Board shall adopt a policy which governs the presence of ex officio members at Executive Board Meetings (for illustrative purposes only and not by way of limitation—the policy may require ex officio members to leave during executive session or budget deliberations).

4.2 – Duties

The Executive Board shall:

- 4.2.1 Exercise the powers and perform the duties of the State Committee between the State Committee's meetings;
- 4.2.2 Vote to temporarily remove Executive Board and State Committee Members for cause (Articles 3.1 and 3.2.5);

5.1.20 Arrange and provide for a Republican State Convention (Article 7.4).

5.2 – State Vice Chairman: The State Vice Chairman shall be chief assistant to the State Chairman in the administration of his/her duties. Said State Vice Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the State Committee and the Executive Board in the absence of the State Chairman.

In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of the State Chairman, the State Vice Chairman shall exercise all of the powers and perform all of the duties of the State Chairman until said vacancy has been filled by the State Committee. He/she shall annually submit a written report of the activities of his/her office to the State Chairman.

5.3 – State Secretary: The State Secretary shall be the secretary of the State Committee and secretary of the Executive Board. The State Secretary shall keep complete and accurate minutes of all proceedings of all meetings of the State Committee and Executive Board and complete signed records of all actions taken.

5.4 – State Treasurer: The State Treasurer shall receive and receipt all State Committee moneys and deposit the same in the appropriate State Committee account in a federally insured financial institution. The State Treasurer shall pay expenditure vouchers authorized by the State Chairman by check. The State Treasurer may appoint one or more Deputy Treasurers to execute the requirements of these bylaws.

All State Committee checks shall be signed with two authorized signatures. Individuals authorized to sign checks and respective amount limits shall be designated by the State Treasurer and approved by the Executive Board. The State Chairman and the Executive Director shall both sign all checks in excess of $10,000.00 or in other amounts as deemed appropriate by the Executive Board.

The State Treasurer shall submit monthly financial statements to the State Chairman, Budget Committee Chairman, and Audit Committee Chairman. Similar financial statements shall be submitted to the State Committee and Executive Board at their regularly scheduled meetings. The State Treasurer shall submit to the State Committee on or before January 31 of each year a financial statement and report of the activities of his/her office during the preceding year. The State Treasurer is responsible for the accounting of all contributions to the State Committee, of all State Party expenditures and for compliance reporting in accordance with the election laws of the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) and the Federal Election Commission (FEC). The State Treasurer shall not be limited to the duties herein but shall perform other duties appropriate to the Office of Treasurer.

5.5 – Controller (Chief Accounting Officer): A controller shall be retained to function as Chief Accounting Officer and provide oversight, compliance monitoring and expert counsel on all State Party financial and accounting procedures. This controller shall have in-depth knowledge and experience in financial matters, generally accepted accounting principles, and shall be expected to become familiar with PDC and FEC regulations. The controller shall be appointed by the State Chairman, confirmed by the Executive Board, and have a dual reporting responsibility to both the State Chairman and the Executive Board. The controller may be terminated only with the approval of the Executive Board.

5.6 – Executive Director: The State Chairman may, at his/her discretion, retain an Executive Director to assist him/her in accomplishing his/her duties and implementing party bylaws, rules, and policies. The Executive Director shall take office only after approval of his/her credentials and qualification by the Executive Board. The Executive Director shall report to and serve at the pleasure of the State Chairman.

5.7 – Independent Audit: The State Treasurer shall make certain that the books of the State Committee are audited at least every two years by independent auditors appointed by the Executive Board. The resulting audit report shall be distributed to all members of the Executive Board, the State Committee, and the Budget Committee.

5.8 – Competitive Bids for Material and Services: All procurements for materials and services that exceed $15,000 or have an extended contract beyond one year shall be executed by a competitive bidding process available to known eligible suppliers, unless the State Chairman authorizes a sole or selected source and documents his/her justification in writing. The Controller shall monitor compliance with his/her provision of the bylaws and report any irregularities to the State Chairman, Executive Board, and State Treasurer.

5.9 – Conflict of Interest: Employees of the State Committee shall not be permitted to have outside employment which may conflict with their assigned duties. This restriction includes, but is not limited to, performing services or work for pay on behalf of candidates for office either within or outside of Washington State. Neither employees nor Executive Board Member may receive compensation, gifts in excess of $40, or financial favors from any vendor, supplier, and/or consultant to the State Committee, unless such an arrangement is specifically approved in writing by the State Chairman and disclosed to the Executive Board. Employees are obligated to disclose areas of possible conflict of interest to the State Chairman, and the State Chairman to the Executive Board, prior to date of hire or at any later date if such conflict or potential conflict arises. Executive Board Members and employees shall not be beneficially interested in any contract, other than an employment contract with the State Party unless authorized by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Board.

5.10 – Liability Coverage: The State Chairman and State Treasurer will ascertain that State Party employees who have access to party funds are identified for proper liability coverage in the form of bonding, indemnity, and/or fidelity insurance. The amount of coverage and those to be covered shall be determined by the State Chairman, approved by the Executive Board, and premiums paid by the State Committee.

ARTICLE 6 – ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE

6.1 – Nomination and Election of State Chairman and State Vice Chairman: All nominations for State Chairman and State Vice Chairman to be elected by the State Committee shall be called for and made from the floor. The State Chairman and State Vice Chairman must be of opposite sexes.

If more than two candidates are nominated for any office, the voting members present shall first vote upon all the nominees. If one candidate receives a majority of all votes cast, he/she shall be declared elected. If no candidate receives a majority of all votes cast, the two receiving the highest number of votes shall then become the nominees to be voted upon for the office to be filled. The members shall then vote upon the two persons so nominated, and the one receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

All voting for more than one candidate shall be by secret ballot.

6.2 – Terms of Office: The terms of office of all elective or appointive officers of the State Committee, except the National Committeeman and the National Committeewoman, shall be for the two-year period. The terms of the National Committeeman and National Committeewoman shall be four years, starting from the adjournment of the National Convention.

6.3 – Vacancies and Removals: When a vacancy occurs in the office of the State Chairman or State Vice Chairman, the State Committee shall meet within 90 days to fill the unexpired term in the manner described in Article 6.1.

The State Chairman, State Vice Chairman, National Committeeman, or National Committeewoman may be removed from office by a two-thirds vote of the State Committee provided that:

1. The reason for the removal vote is submitted in writing to the State Chairman;
2. The removal vote request is signed by 20% of the State Committee Members; and
3. Notice is given to the State Committee of the removal vote with the reason for the vote no less than 14 days before the State Committee Meeting.

A vacancy shall exist if a Regional Executive Board Member moves outside his/her Region, resigns as a State Committee Member or Executive Board Member, or fails to attend or send a proxy to two Executive Board Meetings in a row. Notice of the vacancy shall be sent out to the State Committee no more than 14 days after the State Party becomes aware of or is notified of the vacancy. The vacancy shall be filled in the prescribed manner on or before the next meeting of the State Committee. A special meeting of the State Committee Members in a Region with a vacancy shall be called by the State Chairman for the sole purpose of filling the vacancy within 30 days after being notified the vacancy exists.

A Regional Executive Board Member may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the State Committee Members in that region, provided that:

1. The reason for the removal vote is submitted in writing to the State Chairman;

2. The removal vote request is signed by 20% of that region’s State Committee Members; and
3. Notice is given to the State Committee of the removal vote with the reason for the vote no less than 14 days before the State Committee Meeting.

If a vacancy occurs before the term is complete in the office of National Committeeman or National Committeewoman, such vacancy shall be filled by a vote of the State Committee at its next regular meeting.

6.4 – Election of Regional Executive Board Members:

Twenty-three (23) members of the Executive Board shall be apportioned among the eight Regions (listed below and which generally correspond with Congressional Districts) on the basis of the Republican vote therein, with no less than two members allocated per region and additional members added if needed so Region 8 has no less than six (6) members. Republican vote shall be determined by combining the Republican vote in each county from the most recent Presidential-election-year general election for the statewide offices which received the three highest Republican votes statewide.

Region 1	Snohomish
Region 2	Island, San Juan, Skagit, and Whatcom
Region 3	Clark, Cowlitz, Lewis, Pacific, Skamania, Wahkiakum
Region 4	Benton, Chelan, Douglas, Grant, Kittitas, Okanagan, Yakima, Klickitat
Region 5	Asotin, Adams, Columbia, Ferry, Franklin, Garfield, Lincoln, Pend Oreille, Spokane, Stevens, Walla Walla, Whitman
Region 6	Clallam, Grays Harbor, Jefferson, Kitsap, Mason
Region 7	Pierce (minimum of 2), Thurston (minimum of 1)
Region 8	King (minimum of 6)

At the state organizational meeting, state committee members from regions 1-7 shall caucus separately to elect members to represent their respective regions as follows:

- The caucus will be started by a chair appointed by the State Chairman. The first order of business will be for the members of the caucus to elect a permanent chair from among their members which will serve until another chair is elected.
- A man and a woman shall be elected in regions with 2 members.
- In regions with 3 or more members, both genders must be represented.

The representatives (minimum of 6) from Region 8 shall be elected according to the bylaws of the King County Republican Party.

6.5 – Salaries and Wages: The State Committee may authorize the payment of such reasonable salaries to its officers, committee chairmen, and committee members as it may deem to be necessary and proper.

ARTICLE 7 – MEETINGS

7.1 – State Committee Meetings: The State Committee shall meet for the purpose of its organization every two years, in January of the odd number year. Not later than ten days prior to said meeting, the State Chairman shall mail or email a written notice to the last known address of each member thereof, designating the time and place at which said meeting is to be held.

At each organization meeting, the State Committee shall elect the State Chairman and State Vice Chairman. The State Committee shall confirm the election of Regional Executive Board Members.

The National Committeeman and National Committeewoman shall be elected in the year of the National Convention at a meeting of the State Committee held immediately before the State Convention.

The State Chairman may call a meeting of the State Committee, to be held at a time and place set by him/her, but no less than three times annually, by mailing or emailing a written notice to the last known address of each member not later than 20 days prior to the time set for said meeting. Said notice shall state the purpose of calling the proposed meeting.

The State Chairman shall call, within ten days, by regular notice, a meeting of the State Committee whenever two-thirds of the members of the Executive Board or a majority of the members of the State Committee demand such meeting be called. In the event that the State Chairman refuses or fails to act, then the petitioners shall issue a regular call to all committee members, signed by the petitioner, designating time, place, and purpose of such meeting.

The dates and locations for the three required meetings each year of the State Committee shall be determined in coordination with the Meeting Planning Committee (see Article 3.3.4).

7.2 – Executive Board Meetings: The Executive Board shall meet no less than four times a calendar year and, upon call of the State Chairman, in the interim between meetings of the State Committee or upon its own motion by petition as provided in Article 7.3.

7.3 – Executive Board Special Meetings: Special Meetings of the Executive Board may be called by the State Chairman upon 24-hour notice to the Executive Board Members. Notification of the Special Meeting must specify said purpose of the meeting. Business is limited to the purpose specified in the Special Meeting notification. The majority of the Executive Board may petition in writing to the State Chairman to call a Special Meeting. Said petition shall state the purpose of the Special Meeting.

The State Chairman shall call the Special Meeting within 5 days of receipt of petition. If after 5 days the State Chairman fails to call the Special Meeting, the Executive Board may immediately call itself into session. Telephonic, video conference, and new technology shall be allowable.

7.4 – State Convention: The State Chairman shall arrange and provide for a Republican State Convention either in accordance with a call received from the National Committee or as called for by the State Committee. The call to the State Convention shall be mailed to all counties January 15th of the Convention year and shall include:

- 7.2.1 The number of delegates and the allocation of those delegates among the counties as recommended by the Executive Board and approved by the State Committee;
- 7.2.2 Rules for electing delegates to the State Convention;
- 7.2.3 Procedures to be followed in the local precinct caucus-county convention process, including rules pursuant to which precinct committee officers shall automatically serve as delegates to the county convention; and
- 7.2.4 The time and place of the State Convention and, in the year of a National Convention: A statement that, at the State Convention, the delegates from each Congressional District shall elect three delegates to the National Convention and three alternate delegates.

ARTICLE 8 – MEETING RULES

8.1 – Quorums: A majority of the voting members of the State Committee or Executive Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at their respective meetings. Any action taken by a majority of the members voting at any meeting shall be the valid action of the State Committee or Executive Board respectively.

8.2 – Proxies: An absentee State Committee Member may be represented by a proxy at any State Committee Meeting, provided that said proxy, executed in writing, is held by a member of the County Central Committee or an elected officer of the County Central Committee from the county of the absentee member. No person may cast more than one vote.

An absentee Executive Board Member may be represented by a proxy at any Executive Board Meeting, provided that said proxy, executed in writing, is held by a Republican Party county or legislative district committee officer from one of the region’s counties, defined as a chairman, vice chairman, state committeeman, state committeewoman, secretary, or treasurer from a county within the Region represented by said absentee member. No person at an Executive Board Meeting may cast more than one vote.

If the National Committeeman, National Committeewoman, or State Vice Chairman are absent, they may be represented by a proxy at any Executive Board Meeting, provided that said proxy is executed in writing and is held by a State Committee Member.

At meetings of any ad hoc committee appointed by the State Chairman, proxies will not be permitted.

8.3 – Executive Board Meetings: Any State Committee Member will be allowed to attend and observe an Executive Board Meeting, except when a closed executive session is called on written advice of legal counsel, which is to be made available to all State Committee Members.

8.4 – Voting: The standard method of voting shall be by voting cards (provided by staff).

8.5 – Roberts Rules of Order: When not inconsistent with the provisions of these rules, the most recent edition of Roberts Rules of Order shall govern all meetings of the State Committee, Executive Board, and all committees.

8.6 – Suspension of Rules: The State Committee may temporarily suspend, for a specific purpose, any provision of these Meeting Rules by a two-thirds vote of the members present at that meeting.

ARTICLE 9 – FINANCE

9.1 – Fiscal Year: The fiscal year for the State Committee shall be from January 1 to the following December 31 of the same calendar year, both dates inclusive. During the first three months following the biennial organizational meeting, expenditures shall be authorized at the level of the prior year's budget, unless the State Committee or Executive Board shall otherwise direct.

9.2 – Budgets: In coordination with the State Chairman, the Budget Committee (Article 3.3.2) shall prepare preliminary budget of anticipated necessary expenditures to support the political and fundraising plans for the ensuing year which shall be submitted to and approved by the Executive Board no later than the last regular Executive Board Meeting of each year.

The final budget must be adopted by the State Committee at the first State Committee Meeting of each year.

Said budget may include funds to aid general election campaigns of Republican candidates seeking county offices, provided that such financial assistance to county races shall be rendered only with the approval of the respective county central committee or its designees.

Said budget may include funds to aid in the financing of the general election campaigns of:

- All Republican candidates seeking elective state offices, state legislative offices, United States Senatorial offices, and United States Representatives offices;
- State campaign activities in furtherance of the candidates of the Republican nominees for President and Vice President of the United States;
- The general election campaign of the Superintendent of Public Instruction; and
- The primary or general election campaigns for Justice of the Supreme Court.

The budget shall also include the cost of:

- Promoting programs of the State Committee;
- Wages, salaries, and reasonable travel and expenses of the State Chairman, State Vice Chairman, and employees so designated;
- Operation expenses of the State Committee's office or offices; and

- Costs for such other statewide activities as may be deemed necessary and proper in the promotion of the objectives of the State Committee for the ensuing fiscal year.

The Executive Board shall be responsible for the review and approval of State Committee staffing plans and salary schedules.

No expenditures of money shall be made by the State Committee without such expenditures being approved by the State Chairman.

9.3 – Fundraising: The State Committee's approval of the annual political plan and budget authorizes the State Chairman to implement fundraising plans in accordance with the approved plans.

ARTICLE 10 – LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT COMMITTEES

10.1 – Establishment: A legislative district committee may be established for each legislative district within the State of Washington. A committee established pursuant to this Article 10, and no other committee, is a legislative district committee of the Washington State Republican Party and does not constitute a separate Republican Party. Terms of officers and members of such legislative district committees shall expire at the end of every even-numbered year.

10.2 – Purpose: The purpose of a legislative district committee is to coordinate Republican Party activities within the district.

10.3 – Creation of the Legislative District Committee where county central committee bylaws make provision for their creation

10.3.1 Single County Districts: Where Republican Party County Central Committee Bylaws make provision for the establishment of a legislative district committee for a district wholly within that county, that legislative committee shall be organized and operated in accordance with those bylaws.

10.3.2 Multi-County Districts: Where Republican Party County Central Committee Bylaws for the establishment of a legislative district committee for a district located within more than one county, that legislative district committee shall consist of three members from each county as provided by the bylaws of those Republican Party County Central Committees. Each such legislative district committee shall hold an organization meeting by June 30 of every odd-numbered year for the purpose of electing a chairman and a treasurer.

10.4 – Creation of the Legislative District Committee where county central committee bylaws make no provision for their creation

10.4.1 Single County Districts: Where Republican Party County Central Committee Bylaws make no provision for the establishment of a legislative district committee for a district wholly within that county, the committee for each district within that county shall consist of three or more members, including a chairman and a treasurer, elected by the PCOs of that district. Officers and members of such a committee may be removed, and any vacancy filled, by the PCOs of that district.

- 10.4.2 Multi-County Districts: Where Republican Party County Central Committee Bylaws make no provision for the establishment of a legislative district committee for a district located within more than one county, that legislative district committee shall consist of three members from each county, elected by the PCOs of that district within that county. Each such legislative district committee shall hold an organization meeting by June 30 of every odd-numbered year for the purposes of electing a chairman and a treasurer. Officers and members of such a committee may be removed, and any vacancy filled, by their county's PCOs of that district.

10.5 – Activities and Internal Governance: A legislative district committee may conduct such activities, and may adopt such rules for its internal governance, as the committees may determine, consistently with these bylaws and applicable county bylaws.

ARTICLE 11 – FILLING MULTI-COUNTY LEGISLATIVE VACANCIES

Legislative vacancies for joint senator or joint representative positions shall be filled in accordance with Article 2, Section 15 of the Washington State Constitution according to the following procedure:

- 11.1 Three names shall be submitted to the State Committee by counties in the legislative district where the vacancy occurs. Selection of names will be by precinct committee officers, elected at the last primary election or appointed sixty days prior to occurrence of vacancy, whose precincts are in the legislative district where vacancy occurs.
- 11.2 By agreement of a majority of County Chairmen of the legislative district, a joint meeting of precinct committee officers will be held for selection of three names to be submitted to the State Committee. The meeting shall be held at the call of the State Chairman after consulting with the county chairman of the affected counties. The State Chairman shall designate the temporary chairman of the meeting. The permanent chairman of the precinct meeting will be elected by a majority vote of the precinct committee officers present. No proxies will be allowed.
- 11.3 The State Committee or, during interim between meetings, the Executive Board, shall review the multi-county legislative district proceedings and the nominations submitted to ensure that (1) proper lawful procedures were followed and (2) nominees are legally qualified to serve if appointed. If such determination is made the State Committee or its Executive Board shall ratify such nominees and submit same as the State Committee's recommendations to the County Commissioners and/or County Councils of the affected counties.

- 11.4 In the event that such review of procedures and legal qualification determine that error has occurred, the State Committee or Executive Board, recognizing that timeliness in filling such vacancies dictates that action occur at the earliest possible date, may either reject the nominee(s) not found to be legally qualified, request reconsideration, or adjust the nominee list for only those not found to be legally qualified as appropriate prior to submission.

ARTICLE 12 – AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

These bylaws may be amended by a majority vote on January 31, 2025. Proposed amendments on January 31, 2025, do not need to be presented in advance or in writing.

These bylaws may be amended by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present at any regular or called meeting of the State Committee. All proposed amendments shall be submitted to the State Chairman in not later than 20 days prior to convening any meeting of the State Committee. Copies of the proposed amendments shall be mailed or emailed by the State Chairman or proxy to all State Committee Members not later than ten days before the meeting at which they are to be considered.

ARTICLE 13 – NON-CONTINUING NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

The Republican State Committee is a non-continuing body, organized following each even-numbered year general election. The bylaws are adopted by the newly elected members of the Republican State Committee at their first meeting. Until the organization meeting for the new committee, the members of the "old" committee continue in their positions.
